The Hull & East Riding Citizens Advice Bureau

Provides free, independent, confidential and impartial advice to everyone on their rights and responsibilities.

It values diversity, promotes equality and challenges discrimination.

The Service aims:-

To provide the advice people need for the problems they face.

To improve the policies and practices that affect people's lives.

Independent - we will always act in the interest of our clients, without influence from outside bodies.

Impartial - we will do everything we can to help every client, whoever they are and whatever the problem. We treat all clients with the same respect and same commitment.

Confidential - we won't pass on anything a client tells us, or even the fact they've visited us, without their permission.

Free - no-one has to pay for any part of the service we provide

Funded by East Riding of Yorkshire Council, in partnership with East Riding of Yorkshire Clinical Commissioning Group
