Hi Jon

In response to your email below, we would like to make the following statement:

"We have worked closely with East Riding of Yorkshire Councils (ERYC) Planning department throughout the creation of their 'Local Plan Strategy' and Allocations documents, to ensure that matters within the remit of the Environment Agency were given sufficient consideration, and opportunities to make the documents more robust were recognised.

Having been part of the consultation process, and having read the 'Duty to Cooperate Background Paper', I can confirm that the Environment Agency believe ERYC have satisfied the requirements of the 'Duty to Cooperate' whilst preparing the policy documents mentioned.

If you have any queries regarding the above please contact me using the details provided."

Regards

Jonny

Subject: East Riding Local Plan Examination

Hi Jonathan

We have been asked by the planning inspector conducting the Examination of the East Riding Local Plan (Strategy and Allocations Document) to contact relevant bodies prescribed by the Duty to Cooperate. I would be grateful if you would consider the contents of the attached letter, which requests a response (by 5th September) to clarify whether you consider East Riding of Yorkshire Council to have satisfied the Duty in preparing both the Local Plan Strategy and Allocations Documents.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you wish to discuss this.

Kind regards

Jon
