Notice is hereby given in accordance with paragraph 3(3) of Schedule 14 to the Wildlife and Countryside Act 1981, that East Riding of Yorkshire Council has:

- 1 investigated the matters stated in the above application;
- 2 consulted every local authority whose area includes the land to which the application relates; and
- 3 in consequence of those investigations and consultations, determined the application.

All evidence available, including that submitted with the application and that arising from consultations and further investigations undertaken by the Council, has been considered and, does not establish that a right of way can reasonably be alleged to subsist. The application for a Definitive Map Modification Order is therefore refused.
